Lex de Azevedo has had one of the most diverse careers in the music industry as a composer, pianist, producer, arranger and conductor. Lex's career spans from the classic Where The Red Fern Grows to the animated musical feature Swan Princess. He has written five stage musicals, including Saturday's Warrior and My Turn on Earth, and produced his own record albums across a wide musical spectrum, from the jazz of Mountains and Moab to the new contemporary classical works of Variations on a Sacred Theme and The Life of Christ oratorio series. Lex is the father of ten children.
