George Washington – Father of our Country
Commander in Chief of the Continental Army (1775 - 1783)
Chairman of the 1787 Constitutional Convention,
First President of the United States of America (1789 - 1797)
AMERICA'S MOST INDESPENSABLE MAN

Remember . . .

Bring your family, friends and neighbors to remember and celebrate the American Revolution and America's most indispensable man—George Washington.

Our program will feature Paul Swenson, a remarkable man whose patriotism has been felt from coast to coast. Paul is a resident of Sandy City, Utah. In 1988 Paul and his wife Elizabeth became the owners of Colonial Flag. After the tragedy of September 11, 2001, in 2002 Paul created "The Healing Field", a field of 3,000 American flags to honor those who lost their lives in the 9/11 terrorist attacks, and the soldiers who lost their lives in the fight to defeat terrorism. He is president of the Colonial Flag Foundation, the nonprofit organization responsible for Healing Field Flag Memorials that have helped millions to unite and heal across the country. Paul's philanthropy for our military, schools, scouting organizations, communities, and various groups across the nation is influencing a greater respect and appreciation for our flag and American values. Bring your family and friends to be inspired and uplifted by Paul Swenson and the message he will share!

A delicious colonial style supper will be catered by Majestic Grill. The colors will be presented by the Utah SAR Color Guard, who wear the iconic uniform of the American Revolution Continental Army. Come strengthen your appreciation for liberty and freedom we enjoy as Americans.

Celebrate America!
